

Mr. Glowacki is licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and New York and is a licensed real estate title insurance agent in Pennsylvania. Prior to joining the Knox Firm, Mr. Glowacki worked as a Certified Public Accountant in the tax departments of Deloitte Haskins & Sells and a law firm in Pittsburgh. He focuses his practice on business, complex estate planning matters and commercial real estate, with emphasis on the tax considerations involved in such transactions.

Education

- University of Pittsburgh School of Law, 1983, J.D.
- Gannon University, 1980, B.A.
Summa Cum Laude

Recent Accomplishments

- negotiated terms of a sales agreement for a $20 million student housing complex in Shippensburg, Pennsylvania
- represented a borrower in multi-million dollar financing for construction of student housing at the local campus of a Pennsylvania State University
- resolved complex issues surrounding the reorganization of a multi-million dollar family-owned business to establish an estate plan that fulfilled clients' goals and preserved the integrity of the business
- coordinated the purchase of property and buildings located in multiple states leased by a publicly-traded chain of drug stores involving complex financing issues with an out-of-state lender

Community and Professional Service

- Greater Erie YMCA, Board Member, Assistant Treasurer
- Mercy Center for Women, Board Member
- Erie County Bar Association Foundation, Scholarship Committee

Practice Concentration

- § Business Law
- § Real Estate
- § Estate Planning
- § Taxation

Firm Involvement

- § Shareholder
- § Board of Directors, Treasurer

Admissions & Certifications

- § Pennsylvania, 1983
- § New York, 2003

Professional Affiliations

- § Pennsylvania Bar Association
- § Erie County Bar Association
- § New York Bar Association
- § Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants

KNOX
MCLAUGHLIN
GORNALL
& SENNETT