

James S. Bryan

Before he retired, Mr. Bryan's practice concentrated on estate planning and administration, real estate law, municipal law and elder law. He previously served for many years as solicitor for the Borough of North East and its two authorities. Following his graduation from law school, Mr. Bryan served as a captain and military judge in the United States Marine Corps. He remains an active member of the North East community.

EDUCATION

- Harvard University School of Law, J.D.
magna cum laude
Board of Student Advisors
Harvard Law Review, Editor
- Allegheny College, B.S.
cum laude
- U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's School
- U.S. Naval Justice School

HONORS

- American Bar Association Award for Professional Merit
- Selected as Readers' Choice "Best Attorney" of 2016, North East News-Journal
- Selected as Readers' Choice "Best Attorney" of 2010, North East News-Journal

COMMUNITY & PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

- Borough of North East, Former Solicitor
- The National Bank of North East and North East Bancshares, Inc., Former Director
- The Electric Materials Company, Former Director
- Iroquois Tool Systems, Inc., Former Director
- McCord Memorial Library, Former Trustee and President
- North East Cemetery Association, Former Trustee and President
- Orris C. Hirtzel and Beatrice Dewey Hirtzel Memorial Foundation, Trustee and Secretary