Colleen D. Campbell

Associate

Colleen focuses her practice in business, commercial and tax law; banking and commercial lending; nonprofit and tax-exempt entities; and community development projects. She has prior experience as a Certified Legal Intern during law school, providing counsel to nonprofit organizations on start-up and governance matters. She also served as an intern for the Erie Regional Chamber and Growth Partnership, The Erie Community Foundation, and Knox Law.

While in law school, Colleen was the Managing Editor of the Journal of Law, Technology, and the Internet; and participated in the Women's Law Association as treasurer. At Gettysburg College, she was Co-President of the Pre-Law Club and President of the Economic Research Club. She was also captain of the varsity cross country and track and field teams, and member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.
