Harrison R. Talarico

Associate

Harrison focuses his practice on labor and employment law, counseling employers on workplace issues, regulatory compliance, and employment-related risk management. He works with businesses to identify practical solutions that support their organizational objectives while addressing evolving legal requirements.

Harrison earned his J.D. from New England Law, where he served as a Law Review Associate and received both Dean's Scholarship and Dean's List honors. During law school, he worked as a Summer Associate with Erie Insurance Group's legal department, conducting multistate legal research and preparing compliance analyses and memoranda. He also served as a research assistant with another local law firm, supporting attorneys through legal research, drafting, client communications, and case development. Harrison earned his bachelor's degree in Philosophy from University of Pittsburgh.
