Shannon M. Bowers

Associate

Shannon concentrates her practice on elder law and estate planning. She assists clients with planning for the future, helping individuals and families navigate matters involving asset protection, long-term care planning and Medicaid planning. Shannon is committed to providing practical guidance tailored to each client's unique goals and circumstances.

Shannon earned two bachelor's degrees from Mercyhurst University, graduating summa cum laude. While attending Texas A&M University School of Law, she gained hands-on experience assisting clients with guardianship matters through the law school's clinic and served as a research assistant. Her experience also includes leadership roles with Barbri and extensive public-facing work through admissions and student ambassador programs.
